Wine Cellar

- 300. Quady Dessert Wine Trio Value$55
Trio of Quady Winery's dessert wines, 375ml each of:
- 2007 Essensia: 100% Orange Muscat, an aroma reminiscent of Orange Blossom and Apricot, and a lingering refreshing aftertaste. The wine is lightly fortified to about 15% alcohol and aged for 3 months in French Oak. Its relatively high acidity makes it taste balanced, more like the taste of fresh fruit.
 - 2007 Elysium: 100% Black Muscat has a rose-like aroma and litchi like flavor. This rose-like aroma led us to name the wine Elysium, Greek for heaven. Smelling and tasting this wine makes one think of dessert. Try one of our favorites; pour Elysium over Vanilla Ice Cream.
 - 2007 Electra: Orange Muscat is a low alcohol (only 4%) picnic wine, light delicate and refreshing. A breath of springtime - like a bouquet of flowers with tastes of peach and melon. Accompany with spicy picnic foods, salads, pastas, and desserts.
- Quady Winery*

- 308. Behrens and Hitchcock Trio Value$375
 Robert Parker can not say enough good things about Behrens and Hitchcock Winery. "They make non-interventionalistic wines of extraordinary personality and character."
 - 2001 Behrens and Hitchcock Heavy Weight was rated 95 points by Parker, and he says "its style is not terribly dissimilar from two 100 point wines, the 1197 Bryant Family Vineyard and 1997 Harlan...Amazing stuff, it boasts an unctuous texture, great density, terrific richness and a palate staining viscosity."
 - 2000 Behrens and Hitchcock King of the Gypsies receives high ratings from Parker. It offers "good density as well as a classic aromatic profile of licorice, tobacco and black currants."
 - 1999 Behrens and Hitchcock Fatboy was given high rating from both Steven Tanzer and Robert Parker. Tanzer says that it has "wild, gamey aromas of berries, licorice, bitter chocolate and smoke." Parker says that it offers "a sumptuous nose and is rich, sweet and layered with great fruit and stunning delineation."Michael & Wendy Maloon

513. The...Best...Chocolate...Ever. Value$72

Premium dark chocolate from San Francisco's newest – and only – chocolate manufacturer, TCHO (pronounced "cho"). Utterly unique "flavor-driven" dark chocolate. Similar to winemakers' approach to grapes, TCHO sources their cacao based on its inherent flavors including "Chocolatey", "Fruity", "Nutty", and "Citrus". There is no fruit in "Fruity" nor a nut in "Nutty" — only genetics and terroir give the bars their pure flavors. Taste and share the exquisite flavors of TCHO.

This collection includes six 60 gram bars:

- 2 "Chocolatey"
- 2 "Citrus"
- 1 "Fruity"
- 1 "Nutty"

All this, and you also get Certificates for 2 pounds of Peet's coffee, and a ceramic Peet's mug.

Restrictions: TCHO is only for the "true" chocolate lover.

Peet's Coffee & Tea, TCHO

- 906. Curt Schilling Autographed Baseball Value$250
When Curt Schilling returned to the team that first drafted him he brought the power to restore glory to the Boston Red Sox and break a curse that had haunted the club since 1918. The two-time leader in strikeouts and 2001 World Series MVP shone in 2004 as he won 21 games and had an impressive 3.26 ERA. Braving a severe ankle injury during the 2004 playoffs and World Series Schilling led the BoSox to victory and established himself as one of the greatest postseason pitchers of all-time.

Curt Schilling has hand signed this official Major League baseball. Mary McHale picked up this ball in person last year during the FSMA Conference in Boston. The Red Sox hosted "Play Ball! for SMA" at Fenway Park last June, and many of the Conference-goers attended the game. Mary had the opportunity to meet Curt Schilling and have him autograph this ball while she was there (there's a photo to prove it). Curt Schilling is not only a legendary baseball player, he's also a big fan of Families of SMA! You may have seen him on Extreme Home Makeover with the Johnson Family-Will has SMA Type 2.
